There are more than 8000 car parking spaces at Ascot Racecourse. During the Jumps season parking is free, while pricing varies throughout the Flat season. Coach parking is available.

BY RAIL

South Western Railway runs a frequent service to Ascot from both Reading, Guildford and London Waterloo. The average journey time is 27 minutes from Reading and 52 minutes from Waterloo. The railway station is a seven-minute walk from the racecourse, via a spacious paved path away from roads.

For further information on travelling to Ascot Racecourse visit ascot.co.uk/directions.

FOOD AND DRINK

Each of our 21 Ascot racedays and Royal Ascot offer a wide selection of Food and Drink across our Enclosures.

With walk-up restaurants, On The Go food outlets around site and bars selling beers, spirits, Champagnes and our signature serves, there's something for everyone. Find the raceday you're attending below to see what's on offer - including Gluten Free, Vegan and Vegetarian options.

Food and drink vouchers are available for purchase in advance of your visit.

For full details for your chosen raceday for each facility with map locations, why not download the Ascot App?

PICNIC POLICY

Picnics are welcome at the racecourse for all Ascot Racedays. During Royal Ascot, picnics are permitted within the Windsor Enclosure and are welcomed across all car parks. To find out more on our picnic policy, visit ascot.co.uk/ascot-policies.

WHAT TO WEAR

The dress code varies per season and by meeting and enclosure, with a more relaxed dress code on Ascot Racedays, and a more formal dress code for the Royal Meeting.

To find dress code advice for your chosen raceday visit ascot.co.uk/what-to-wear.

FIRST AID POINTS

Should you need assistance from on-site medical personnel, including paramedics, a member of staff will be able to direct you to your nearest first aid point.

ASCOT APP

Download the Ascot App to shape your ideal raceday. See all the runners and riders via the digital racecard - view the whole day's racing, study the form and never miss a race result. Find your way around the venue with the fully interactive map - easily find all the entertainment and facilities.
